Dear Friend:

I am writing to enclose a copy of a letter I am sending to Wendell Smith of The Courier. It is very confidential, as you can see. PLEASE SEND IT BACK TO ME.

I am sending it to you for two reasons, first because I regard you so highly, and second because I hope you will get to work on Tom. He could do so much good.

Are we going to have a joint meeting? Try and get Tom to call one so we can work on the thing I spoke to you about. There are many things I would like to say to you, that I hesitate to put in a letter.

Just drop this letter to Smitty in an envelope, and return to me, and I will know you received it. I do hope we will have a joint meeting, and make up a joint schedule.

Very Truly Yours
